Legion Auxiliary Works On Plantation Minstrel Show With Local Talent

Colorful Show Will Be Presented in Latter Part of Month, To Offer Variety of Entertainment

April 24 looms as the big date for the many persons now rehearsing in the Novelty Plantation Minstrel Show which is being given by Albany Post of the American Legion Auxiliary.

This pretentious offering, directed by Mrs. Mabel Ryken, promises to be one of the most colorful productions that local organizations have presented, announces Mrs. Josephine Foley, president of the Auxiliary.

With all the familiar characters of an old-time minstrel show being portrayed by local people, the audience will greatly enjoy the performance at the Veterans Memorial Building, anticipates Mrs. Elna Saunders, general chairman of the event.

The action takes place in the lovely garden of a southern family, the plot reveals, and depicts the activities of the whites and Negroes in songs and music. A number of clever dance specialties are also included.

Solo numbers will be offered by Miss Barbara Kroft and Miss Frankie Burke.

CAST OF CHORUS

In the opening chorus will appear the following: Mae O'Brien, Jean Cook, Eleanor Birks, Lucille Hayden, June Schiller, Jean Crocker, Ruth Lewis, Rita O'Brien, Peggy Bennett, Marion Bennett, Bernice DeLeon, Cecilia DeLeon, Bonnie Lee McDuffee, Mildred Hawkins, Annetta Holland, Roberta Moore, Marie Casey, Amelia Cook, Rilla Moore, Anita Casey, Josephine Foley, Elna Saunders, Rose Novell, Charles Graeber, William Woolworth, Leon Fay, Bartle Rolph, Earl Hodgkins, Paul O'Brien, Bill Dawling, Billy Ryken, Dennis O'Connor, Homer Anderson, Johnnie O'Malley, Pat Slavin, Louis Fouchet, Jim Kelly, Gerard Sharkey, Ed Ryken, Joe Vaughn, Charles Robinson, Harry Arnold-Craig, Raymond Sampietro, Albert England, J. Kelly Bryan, Paul Nathan and Charles A. Moore.

A stately minuet will be decorously presented with the following dancers: Rose Novell, Rilla Moore, Mae O'Brien, Beatrice Eckwall, Josephine Foley, Elna Saunders, Mabel Nelson and Hazel McDuffee.

Among the young people who have been rehearsing steadily on a cakewalk number are Phyllis Foley, Shirley Novell, Mary Ellen Cook, Shirley Saunders, Harry Kane, Jr., Donald Novell, George High, Jr., and Billy Hanson.

Oakland Rites Held for Woman

Funeral services were held yesterday in Oakland for Mrs. Maria Teresa Sandretto, 48, who died in Albany early Tuesday morning of a heart ailment.

A resident here for a number of years, Mrs. Sandretto had been in ill health for some time, according to Dr. Jack L. Stein, her physician. At the time of the attack which proved fatal he called the inhalator squad of the local fire department, but its labor on more than two hours was of no avail.

The deceased is survived by her husband, John Sandretto and three children, John, Peter and Albina of 2034 Talbot Avenue. Interment was at Sunset View Cemetery.

Glines Named To Head Club Of Rotarians

Chosen as president of the Albany Rotary Club last Monday was Kenneth Glines, principal of Cornell School. Glines will assume his new position on July 1 when the term of Don Bruce, present head, is completed.

The Rotarians also named Walter Kees, manager of the Solano Avenue Branch of the Bank of America, as secretary for the ensuing year.

He, too, will assume office in July, succeeding Dr. Lawrence Walters. Speaking on "Parental Education," Daniel W. Hone, San Francisco attorney, gave an illuminating discussion on the necessity for proper sex education for children.

Many failures in present day marriages, Hone declared, are traceable to the lack of such knowledge. He expressed his hope that sex education would eventually be a subject in the schools and stressed to his listeners the advisability of imparting this fundamental knowledge to children in the proper manner.

Plan Meeting Of Interest To Merchants

Speaking in the interest of all independent merchants of Albany and vicinity, Hugo Del Pero, field manager of Home Owned Businesses of California, Inc., will deliver an address next Wednesday evening, April 14, in the Albany Community Center at 8 o'clock.

The subject of this address is of particular interest to all managers and employees concerned with the welfare of locally owned enterprise, according to C. E. Morris, secretary of the Albany Center, who points out that Del Pero will speak on important legislation affecting the future of independent business, including many important bills now pending in Sacramento and Washington.

The speaker will be introduced by Mayor O. C. Yenne, manager of the grocery at 1483 Solano Avenue.

It was learned from Oliver Nelson, who is one of a number of local merchants sponsoring this meeting, that this is the first year in which Home Owned Businesses of California, Inc., has actively engaged in legislative work on behalf of those who own their own businesses, and that it is making splendid progress in the direction of equalizing opportunities between the small businesses and the larger multiple-unit type of corporations.

Cowboy Cop Is Hero of Chase

Movie cowboys had better look out for their laurels when the prowess of Officer Kenneth Nickerson gets around. He demonstrated his ability last Saturday morning on Madison Street by finally catching a runaway horse that was galloping up the street frightening the residents of the 800 block.

"Whoa, steady now," and other soothing phrases uttered by the policeman had the desired effect on the noddie animal which he recognized as the property of William Woolworth, teacher at Albany high school.

A. E. Walters Is New Times Man

With the addition this week of A. E. Walters as advertising manager, the Times again announces an increase in its staff.

Walters was formerly with newspapers in Seattle and Aberdeen, Wash., and brings to this paper the result of years of experience in his line. He will have complete charge of the advertising from this time on.

Lester Butler, employed here for a short time, is now no longer connected with the Times.

Women Choose Dr. Paxson to Guard Emblem

To Dr. Jane Paxson, local physician and surgeon, went the "terrific" responsibility of guarding the safety for the next year of the famed rolling pin, revered emblem of the Woman's Breakfast Club, as ballots were counted for the presidency of that group last Sunday morning.

Dr. Paxson, by her election, must continually keep a wary eye on members of the men's group who, as in the past, will be watching for a chance to purloin the effective household persuader. Such warning was given her by Mrs. Beatrice Raymond, retiring two-term president who had many anxious moments with the symbol of feminine mastery.

Although requested by her friends to seek office a third time, Mrs. Raymond declined with that saying which made history some few years ago in national circles, "I do not choose to run."

Also adopted by the group was a plan to give a testimonial dinner soon for Dr. and Mrs. John Franklin West, charter members of the Men's and Women's Clubs respectively. No date has been set for the gathering, it is reported, but the site will probably be the Maccabees Temple on Kains Avenue.

Dr. West is now superintendent of schools and recently announced his decision to retire from the post on June 30 of this year. The dinner is intended to honor his many accomplishments in his nine years as head of the city's schools.

Couple Unhurt In 'Cycle Crash

Thrown from their motorcycle as it skidded and burst into flames Saturday evening at the foot of Buchanan Street, Miss Lucille Adams of 948 San Pablo Avenue and Albert Uslanghi of Castro Valley escaped with minor bruises.

The pair were riding on the vehicle near the city pound when the accident occurred. The flames were extinguished by local firemen, summoned to the scene by Jim Watkins of Fleming Point.

Villa Named To Lead Men Breakfasters

As a result of the election held last Sunday by the Albany Men's Breakfast Club, Joe Villa will occupy the presidential post for the coming year and Abe Lemes will serve as secretary.

About 35 members attended the session and cast their ballots, after enjoying the excellent breakfast which Louis Griffing had provided for them in his Wimpy's Diner.

Movies of the city's recent "Baseball Day" celebration at University Park were shown through the effort of Griffing and Charlie Tye, past president of the Northern California Baseball Managers' Association. The local restaurant owner was chairman of the activities at that time and Tye acted as master of ceremonies.

As the retiring president, Ed Ryken, turned over his post to Villa, he thanked the members for their fine cooperation during his term of office and asked that the same be continued for his successor.

A similar expression was voiced by Harry Dygert, secretary for two years of the group, as he vacated his position and greeted Lemes.

Voted and passed on was the proposition to issue membership cards costing $1 and setting the club's annual dues at $2. The latter is to be paid in quarterly installments.

C. of C. Asks Attendance at Next Meeting

Cards of notification have been sent to every business and professional person in this city advising of the meeting next Tuesday night of the Albany Chamber of Commerce, revealed J. P. Williams, president of that organization.

"All merchants, whether members or not," said Williams, "should be present. This is to be the most important meeting that has been held this year."

An election of officers and other important business is to be taken up, Williams said. Plans for the complete reorganization and re-animation of the group will also be discussed, he said.

Joseph Harris, Berkeley clothier and director of the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce, will be the speaker of the evening and has promised to point out the steps that must be taken to secure a truly representative organization for this city.

The meeting will be held at the Community Center Building, 921 Kains Avenue, and will be called to order at 8 p. m.

Proclamation

I HEREBY PROCLAIM the days of April 25th to May 9th, 1937, as the time for a Clean-up, Paint-up, Plant-up and Fix-up Campaign.

Few activities offer such wide opportunities for the effective practice of citizenship, home pride and contentment. The main benefits of the campaign may be summed up in a single phrase, "unselfish service of the citizen, whether student or adult, to the community." They do civic planning and carry out civic acts for the community without expectation of personal benefit. This is the essence of citizenship and a wholesome city.

I therefore urge each and every citizen in our city to do everything within his power and means to make this campaign a real Clean-up Paint-up, Fix-up Campaign.

The cooperation of every man, woman and child in the city in this event will be appreciated.

Kite Day Is Big Success On Saturday

Although old Jupe Pluvius did turn on his showers for a while in the morning, they did not discourage a good many young folks from taking part in the annual "Kite Day" contests and activities at University Park last Saturday.

The yearly event, conducted by the Albany Recreation Department, drew entrants of all sizes with entries to match their stature. From kites a few inches across to huge, box kites that whipped about on the end of heavy chalklines, the sky was filled with a large variety.

Directed by Miss Virginia Dennis and Sam Patterson, the young people demonstrated their prowess at the ageless art of kite-flying and were finally rewarded with prize kites made by the latter.

Upholding the glory of her sex was Jeanne Simmons who took first place in the girls' contests. Frank Nicklas won the honors among the boys.

Other winners, all of whom received splendidly constructed kites, were Austin Nicklas, Clarence Daugherty, Victor Daugherty, John Marcollo, Margaret Gould, Herbert Hill, Gene Schaal and Eugene Crosetti.

Pastor Makes Announcement

As the final 30 days of his church's "Silver Stream" Campaign draws near, Rev. H. Brooke of the Community M. E. Church made this announcement:

"The deadline is now only a little more than a month away. We have not yet received our full quota of $7000 which would enable us to take advantage of all the pledges and gifts to the church.

"I am considering a special effort to complete the campaign and put the church across to victory. In the meantime I am confident that our many friends will not allow us to fail. If all of our supporters will rally at this time, the drive can be brought to a speedy and successful conclusion."

Murphy Invites Friends to Show

In appreciation of the patronage which has caused his place of business to grow and prosper during the past year, Gerald Murphy of the Murphy Chevrolet Company has announced a big, free party to be held next Wednesday night, April 14.

The affair will be given in the newly enlarged service department of his firm at 916 San Pablo Avenue and will begin at 8 p. m., he says.

A two-hour program of talking pictures, color cartoons and other entertaining features will be presented that will appeal to adults and children alike.

Girl Reporter Is Interviewed On Assignment

It was a case of interviewing the interviewer Tuesday afternoon when a comely young miss entered the Times office and announced that she was on an assignment from the journalism class of University High School in Oakland.

After granting the young woman the information she asked for, the Times reporter proceeded to question her in turn.

She was Miss Pearl Sanchez, 16, a former resident here with her parents at 701 Jackson Street. Her family, she said, had moved to Oakland shortly before Christmas after a residence of more than a year in this city. She was a student of the Albany High School and was in the high tenth and low eleventh grades.

Now taking her first term of journalism at the Oakland school under the direction of H. Meckel, Miss Sanchez announced that she was very much interested in her work. At that school, she explained, students in the journalism classes are given actual newspaper experience on the U-N-I, daily paper published on the premises.

Albany Girls In Contest to Rule Festival

Two Entries Backed By Local Groups in Queen Race

Ardent supporters of this city's two entrants in the contest to select a Queen for the Berkeley Yacht Harbor celebration, are now hard at work boosting their favorites for the regal position.

The two attractive young women who are seeking the honor of ruling over Berkeley's thrilling three-day festival for the opening of the $1,500,000 yacht harbor and aquatic park, are Miss Lavonne Winsor and Miss Ruth Griffing.

Miss Winsor is being sponsored by Albany Tent of the Maccabees and is the daughter of Mrs. H. L. Honness of 1427 Garfield Avenue.

Miss Griffing is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Griffing, local Both girls are students of Albany High School.

There are at present eight entrants in the race, it is reported. Of these, one will be chosen Queen and four of the others will be picked to act as Princesses during the fête.

The program for the official opening of the gigantic project which has been made possible by Federal aid, will witness a number of local organizations participating in the various events. A huge parade on the first day will reveal many Albany persons taking part.

The outstanding facilities of the yacht harbor, which is not completed yet, have already drawn several yacht clubs from less favorable quarters, it is said. The Aeolian Yacht Club is already at work on the construction of a splendid new clubhouse and the members will keep their boats in this ideal location.

U.S. Observes 'Humane Week'

Sponsored by the American Humane Association, next week has been nationally declared as "Be Kind to Animals Week," from April 11 to 17.

During this seven-day period extra attention is being called to the care of the nation's animals. In this vein the following proclamation was recently issued by Governor LaFollette of Wisconsin:

"Kindness not only makes for good character in the individual but is essential to the progress of society. His story teaches us that cruelty and injustices played an important role in the downfall of many civilizations.

All of us should recognize the need for the humane treatment of animals and practice kindness toward them in our daily lives. The golden rule should be applied to our animal friends as well as to our fellowmen. It is particularly important that our children understand the significance of being humane to animals. The lesson of kindness and justice learned in their impressionable years will mean a lifetime of prevention of cruelties and injustice."

Albany schools are planning a number of special features for this week, school authorities state.

Lutheran Aid Society Meets

Questions pertaining to Biblical subjects were drawn from a question box and answered by Rev. O. R. Janke of the Grace Lutheran Church at the last meeting held in March, by the Ladies Aid.

This was followed by a review of the society's activities during the past five years by Mrs. Marie Weaver, one of the charter members.

Two new members, Mrs. Fred Dusen and Mrs. William Johnson, were then added to the roster. Mrs. George Jauss, who was also to have been initiated, was confined to her home by illness and will join at a future meeting.

Plans were then completed for the fifth anniversary party, given yesterday afternoon in the Memorial Building.

Mrs. Nora Healey and Mrs. Abigail Herr were hostesses of the day and served refreshments at the conclusion of the meeting.

Mrs. Clara Hanson will entertain the Grace Lutheran Sewing Circle at her home on April 22.

The Voters' Assembly of the Church met recently at the home of Norman Stodick for their regular business meeting. Refreshments and a social hour rounded out the evening.

Those present included Rev. Janke and Messrs. Fred Hess, Helmer Hanson, Harold Thomas, George Jauss and Edward Schinnerer.

E. Young of Soledad was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jack O'Leary early this week, returning to his home Wednesday.

There will be one prize for every table, including another quilt of an intricate tulip design.

Preceding this affair will be a smaller party given at the residence of Mrs. Savio on Kains Avenue next door to the Macabees Temple tomorrow night. Score cards will cost only 25 cents, including refreshments. Cakes for the occasion have been donated by the Scouting Mothers.

Harmonica Club In Public Appearance

Although the "Harmonica Club," comprised of Lady Macabees of the Albany Hive, have newly embarked on a musical career, the leaders, Mrs. Mildred Wagner and Mrs. Bessie Jacobson, are already planning an extensive program which will be given before the Rockridge Chapter of the Eastern Star at the latter's first meeting in May.

Last Tuesday the group gathered for the third time at the home of Mrs. Anne Eggleston, 1719 Sacramento Street, Berkeley, and started practicing. The two previous meetings had been taken up with business matters.

Their repertoire for their first public appearance will include, "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms;" a medley of "Old Folks at Home" and "I Like Mountain Music;" "La Godolindrina;" "Cello Linda" and "When My Dreams Come True." There will also be several duets and solo numbers.

Next Tuesday evening Mrs. Edith Harrison's residence at 1835 Ninth Street, Berkeley, will be the meeting place of the band which is composed of the following Lady Macabees: Mildred Wagner, Bessie Jacobson, Nettie Jourdonais, Ann Nikson, Winette Treppard, Anne Eggleston, Margaret Kennedy, Edith Harrison, Georgia Hanson, Alice Murden, Elsie Deuchson and Tillie Cass.

Ladies Aid to Hold Election Soon

Because the attendance was smaller than they had anticipated, the election of officers for the Ladies Aid of the Albany Baptist Church was postponed until next Thursday evening when the group will again assemble at the church parlor.

An unknown intruder made off with a suit of clothes and jewelry valued at $10 during the week-end, R. Pitchard of 1077 Stannage Avenue, reported to police early this week.

Sewing Circle Has Spanish Fete

Indian folk songs vied with Spanish dances for popularity in the diversified program presented by Mrs. Marie Himes, entertainment chairman, at the regular monthly meeting of the Thousand Oaks Sewing Circle last Wednesday afternoon at the Masonic Temple.

Guest artists included little Marilyn Johnson who sang parodies of popular song hits, appearing in one number with a Shirley Temple doll and in another with the five Dionne quintuplets.

Buddy Meads, well known radio entertainer, then sang "Trust in Me" and "Serenade in the Night."

Elizabeth Renehan and Verla Hampton, clad in gorgeous Spanish costumes, gave interpretations of dances of old Seville.

"The Weaver's Song," an old Indian folk song was then sung by Mrs. Minnie Ellen Hastings, who has made an extensive study of tribal lore. Included in her repertoire were "Indian Love Song," and the "Land of the Sky Blue Water."

She was followed by Mrs. Ruby Weatherspoon whose selections were "In Cuba," "Flower Song" and "Spanish Love Song."

The 68 guests then retired to the banquet hall where refreshments were served by Mrs. Mable Lyman, tea hostess, assisted by Mrs. Betty Laird, president.

The tables were beautifully decorated with crystal vases of purple and lavender stock and yellow freesias.

This group will sponsor a card party which is to be given tonight at eight o'clock. Mrs. Jessie Crane will be in charge.

The evening was terminated with the serving of refreshments.

Wilson's Is Ready With Big Surprise

With the entire proceedings shrouded in the deepest secrecy, workmen have been busily engaged at Wilson's during the past week remodeling the place, installing a bar that is the "only one of its kind," and otherwise fitting the popular establishment with the newest in equipment.

Asked what all the mystery was about, Dave and Eva Wilson, proprietors, merely smiled and announced that the public would be let in on the secret tomorrow, Saturday night, when the doors are to be opened for the first time on the newly furnished interior.

From observation, however, the writer was able to discover that new linoleum and a new bar and back-bar have been installed and that's all the information he could secure by peering in a curtained window.

However their many friends know that when Dave and Eva really try to put something over, it's usually extremely successful. Which means that if they have announced a "surprise," it should certainly be all of that.

Special music will be on hand tomorrow night, they say, and many other entertainment features.

Pottery Firm Is Well Known For Quality

The progressive, still old, reliable firm, The California Pottery Co., has for years been the leader in this section of the state in the manufacture and distribution of high grade sewer tile, drainage tile, septic tanks, roofing tile, and other clay products.

The management of this firm has not only built a great reputation for fine service and fair business policies but it has constantly striven through experience and research to always produce the highest quality and most economical products on the market.

It is generally recognized that for efficiency, long life and artful design, nothing surpasses tile roofing as the ideal roof for beautiful homes, and here, as in the installation of a sewage or drainage system, the selection of the proper material to be used is of the greatest importance. Replacements are extremely unpleasant, inconvenient and expensive. It is therefore decidedly false economy to be satisfied with any material except the best.

The staff of experts of the California Pottery Co. is always available. They will, without obligation to you, aid you in estimating costs and in your selection of the best product for your particular need. You will receive the benefit of courteous advice from craftsmen who have spent years to learn what will give you the greatest life, permanence and adaptability.

The California Pottery Co. maintains a well stocked sales and display yard for East Bay patrons at Twenty-second Avenue and East Twelfth Street in Oakland, or just phone Fruitvale 0587.—Adv.

To stimulate interest in the Albany Tennis Club and to encourage the enrollment of new members decided to arrange a tennis tournament when they met at Mr. and Mrs. Joel Popper's residence, on 1304 Solano Avenue, last Tuesday evening.

At present there are 40 active members, according to Mrs. Olga Lansing, vice president, who added that the club is desirous of increasing the membership.

The tournament will start on Saturday, April 17, and is expected to extend over three or four week-ends, thereby giving those who work a chance to compete. Anyone interested in the sport is eligible to enter. Both women's and men's single matches are scheduled. There is to be a small entrance fee.

It was decided that only the boys should elect the boy's commissioner. Miss Fake was authorized to spend money for the senior class.

Two Girls Seek Wandering Pet

Two young misses of 1301 Cornell Avenue are sadly looking for their pet Boston bull terrier, who strayed away from home last Saturday.

The girls are Phyllis and Doris Johnson and they are continuing their search for "Mitzi" all over this district. The wanderer, they say, is a Christmas present from their cousin, Dorothy Lee of 1048 Cornell Avenue.

So, if you should see a six-months-old terrier with a "perfect" screw-tail in your neighborhood, it would be a great favor if these girls were notified immediately.

John C. Brunstein, who is associated with the Department of the Interior in the Redding district near Red Bluff, arrived at his home, 1119 Evelyn Avenue, last Saturday. He plans to remain until Sunday.

African Will Speak Sunday

A native from the Gold Coast of Africa, who is at present an honor student at the University of California, will relate some of his interesting experiences at the "African Night" service at the Albany Baptist Church Sunday night.

The speaker will be Alfred DeHeer, son of a minister on the dark continent. Among the items which he will disclose will be that in his father's congregation are 143 "catechumens," unable to fully embrace Christianity until they give up the practice of polygamy.

The Christian community where his father's church is situated has a converted population of 5,008 persons, it is reported, of whom some 128 are "on trial" before they will be admitted to the faith.

This far-away band of Christians has even sent nine missionaries to Europe, the young student says.

Rev. Floyd Alexander, who is to be in charge of the program will give biographical sketches of Mary Slesson, David Livingstone and other famous missionaries.

There will also be musical selections by a colored choir from the Colored Baptist Church in Berkeley.

Kennel Club Is Now Open

With large and enthusiastic crowds enjoying the nightly races, El Cerrito Kennel club enters its second week of the spring greyhound meeting with prospects of some outstanding events.

President Judge George F. Chapman announces that the calibre of greyhounds now at El Cerrito is the best in the history of the track.

Twice winner over the top field, owned by James B. Trout, one of the veteran kennel owners, is the king at the El Cerrito track at present. Try has a habit of coming from behind in sensational rushes.

Highest preferred option of meet, that on Mervin Elfrink, a hurdler, which returned $100 on a two-dollar option ticket April 6. Secondary options were redeemed at $51.40.

El Cerrito's proximity to San Francisco via the bay bridge has resulted in heavy attendance of San Francisco and peninsula fans, swelling the numbers from the East Bay who make El Cerrito track their nightly sport.

HI-Y PARTY SATURDAY

Wouldn't say so for sure, but I think that Ted Williams, the local radio fixer-upper, has dropped a few lbs. of excess weight in the past couple of weeks.

Hear that several persons are being groomed for the presidency of the C. of C.; the election to be held Tuesday p. m. The merchants should show enough interest in the affairs of their city to attend this meeting as it's regarded as very important to the future of the C. of C. and its part in the growth of this city.

When you hear of local firemen "crabbing," it simply means that, like Fred Pimental and Don Chapman of the dept., they've been out with nets looking for the shelled sea critters.

Albany has a pair of fine entrants in the contest to pick a "Queen" for the Yacht Harbor Fete in Berkeley next month. The two girls, as you should know, are Lavonne Winsor and Ruth Griffing, both students at Albany High. Here's good luck to both of them!

Mrs. Beatrice Raymond, renowned for her club work and activities, is to don an apron and dash a few biscuits off for the fellows at the fire house next Wednesday noon, a correspondent tells me. From reports that have previously reached my ears, the aforesaid lady can really handle a mean rolling-pin, and I don't mean the kind that she wielded as former president of the Women's Breakfast Club, which was just for scaring the members of the men's group.

Taking Wendell Olson, the pharmacist, at his word, I will admit that the new fixtures behind the fountain of the Solano Avenue Pharmacy are quite nifty.

Must remind whoever it was that sent in a "phony" engagement to this paper last week, that the hoax was discovered in time to prevent considerable embarrassment to a certain young couple of this city. Thanks to the frierd who exposed the pranksters.

Fred Lennox, the fotoman, was showing me some beautiful pictures he made down on the Bridge Highway last Sunday as the sun was setting over the bay. Plenty nice, I'd say.

Here's a verbal bouquet to Officer John Viarengo, local gendarme who gave a ticket to the Governor's secretary not so long ago in spite of being shown a so-called "courtesy card" which certainly didn't entitle that party to violate as many of the vehicle laws as he was allegedly doing. To top the matter off, this was the third time that the same officer had caught the official in the same violations.

That's all this week.

I. C. YUCUMANGO,
The Rounder.

Tomorrow evening the Boys' and Girls' Hi-Y Clubs of the "Y" will unite for a big party to be directed by Councilor Morris. Fun from the time you enter till you leave is guaranteed. Members of the Hi-Y Clubs are allowed 2 guests. Invitations were given out last night at the regular club meeting.

DANCE TONIGHT

Every Friday night a benefit dance is held. Bill Lacy and his band will not be able to be here, but records will be used and a small admission will be charged.

S. S. SOUTH WIND IN LEAD

Passengers of the S. S. South Wind, the ship bearing 18 members of the Albany Girls Hi-Y Club is well in the lead on the "cruise" to Rio De Janiero. This report was given out by Miss Shirley O'Neill and Miss Beth Roney, chief engineers of the imaginary ships. "Miles" are received each Thursday by the members for various activities. Last Thursday, the group was entertained by Sydney Solomon of the Capwell Tourist Bureau who gave a splendid talk and showed two reels of pictures on Mexico. Games in the gym are played between 7 and 8 p. m. with various girls in charge and regular meetings are held between 8 and 9 p. m.

HI-Y ELECTS VILA

George Vila was elected by the Boys' Hi-Y Club as president, with Vic Meyers as secretary, and Mill Schoonhoven as treasurer. Art Barassie was appointed as chairman for a Boys' Hi-Y Picnic to be held at the Y Camp in the Santa Cruz Mountains the last of April. Any boy of senior high school age is invited to visit the group Thursday evening between 7 and 8.

CLUBS TO HEAR FIRST AID

First aid work of the American Red Cross will be presented by Morris and members of the Junior Red Cross next Sunday afternoon at 3:15 p. m. in Sciots Hall, Oakland. Chairman of arrangements for the affair will be Carroll Johnson. The program is open to the public.

WOMEN'S GYM CLASS

Every Wednesday morning at 10 a. m. ac lass in gymnasium work is directed by Miss Virginia Dennis of the Albany Recreation Department. Every woman in the community is invited to be on hand. No charge is made, but all are urged to bring gym clothes.

BADMINTON EVERY WEDNESDAY

Badminton classes are held every Wednesday evening at 7 p. m. under the direction of the Albany Recreation Department. This game is lots of fun and good exercise for all who play. Visit the Albany gym, or better still come down and get in the game.

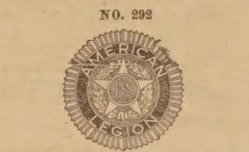

Legion Aux. News Notes

The next regular meeting of Albany Unit No. 292, American Legion Auxiliary, will be held on Monday evening, April 12, at 8 p. m. in the Veterans Memorial Building. Besides the usual meeting, Mrs. Anne Sartain, child welfare chairman, will present an educational and entertaining program.

The speaker for the evening will be O. S. Burkholder, superintendent of the Fred Finch Children's home. Burkholder is also president of the Community Chest Agency Executives of four cities. His topic will be "Preparing Youth for Changing Age."

Mrs. Roberta Moore will entertain with a group of piano numbers and Master Stanley Gene Roderick will sing and dance. The Junior American Legion Auxiliary will appear in a drill, wearing their uniforms of red and white.

ALBANY POST

At the regular meeting of the Post last Friday, Howard Serrels, chairman of the Boy Scout committee, announced that three of the Post's Troop No. 12 had reached the rank of First Class Scouts. In keeping with its custom, the Post formally presented American Legion neckerchiefs to Daniel Græber, Robert Burnett and Hector Burnett.

Five new members have been accepted by Albany Post, it was announced by A. A. Cook, chairman of the membership committee. The new men are John Robbins, John R. Smith, Charles Livingston, Robert Lineer and L. W. Carlson.

Commander Leon Fay named A. L. Ford and Andre LaFayette to represent the Post at the city-wide meeting held last night at the city hall to formulate traffic safety plans.

The Post and Auxiliary received a beautiful wooden plaque from the Forestry Division of the Department of Agriculture for their educational work along fire prevention lines. This award will be displayed in the trophy case along with others that have been presented to the organizations.

The Rounder

Greetings, my friends:

Although the sport has not yet been officially started, archery is proving very popular at University Park. I hear Last Saturday I saw Councilman and Mrs. George Batchelder twanging the bows at targets. Didn't do as badly as some others I could mention, if I wanted to.

The bow and arrow pastime is soon to be instituted by the Albany Recreation Department if enough interest is shown, Tom Farnsworth tells. Judging from the crowd the first day, it will be extremely successful.

Probably shouldn't do this, but here goes anyway:

Wonder why a certain local paper is apparently "down" on a certain S. F. sheet and wouldn't even use its name in a front page article? Might as well do a complete job!

Joe Villa, new prexy of the Men's Breakfast Club, is already bubbling over with ideas to liven up the group's meetings, it seems. Badges and everything, I'm told, will be worn by the members at the gatherings soon.

Don't forget to hie yourselves over to Wilson's tomorrow p. m. and find out what the big "surprise" is that Dave and Eva Wilson have for you!

and ammunition was given by Porter Shaw during the evening.

On the recommendation of the Americanization committee, a citizenship award will be made to a student in the graduating class at St. Mary's High School of this city. The details will be worked out by the committee.

George Foley was elected to serve out an unfinished term on the Memorial Building Commission as a representative of the Post.

WE'VE DECLARED WAR ON UNSAFE TIRES!

FOR WEEKS and months we've been checking tires on cars that drive up to our doors. We've looked under the fenders. We've examined treads for worn spots and kept our eyes peeled for every sign of tire weakness that might spell trouble for the driver. And we discovered an amazing fact—many motorists in this town are riding on tires that are positively dangerous! That's why we've started action. That's why we've declared war on unsafe tires—on blow-out accidents that kill or injure thousands every year. It's a battle to SAVE LIVES and we won't stop until the highways are cleared of these dangerous, tread-worn tires that cause so many blow-outs.

Let Us Replace Tread-Worn Tires with SAFE Silvertowns

In this battle we've got the most powerful weapon ever used in the fight against unsafe tires. And here's why: The Goodrich Safety Silvertown is the only tire in the world that has the Life-Saver Golden Ply. This is a layer of special rubber and full-floating cords, scientifically treated to resist the terrific blowout-causing heat generated inside all tires by today's high speeds. Yet, imagine! These life-saving Silvertowns cost much less than other super-quality tires. Come in today. Remember Silvertowns below mean safety above.
